Optical Illusions

"We can only act within the world that we see." – Stanley Hauerwas

God Flexed

What is striking about Gideon as the chosen deliverer? (Judges 6:15)

What are the characteristics of the world that he is able to see?

How do you feel about Gideon asking for a sign, not once but twice? (Judges 6:36-40)

How have you put God to the test? Can you relate to having put out a fleece before God?

What strikes you about the elements of the battle in Judges 7?

What was God doing to change the sightline of the Israelites so that they could begin to act differently in their world?

What "Midianite armies" have invaded your life and oppressed you to the point where you found yourself blinded by despair and crying out for help?

Wrap Up

"Christianity is, above all, a way of seeing. Everything else in Christian life flows from and circles around the transformation of vision. Christians see differently, and that is why their prayer, their worship, their action, their whole way of being in the world, has a distinctive accent and flavor." – Robert Barron

Where do you see a connection to this quote from Robert Barron to the story of Gideon battling the Midianites and the lyrics of "God Flex"?

What is it about the Gospel's message that gives us a whole way of being in the world that has a distinctive accent and flavor?

When I'm feelin' down (Yeah, He got it), When I'm feelin' low (Yeah, He got it),

it), God flex me, yeah (Yeah, He got it), God flex me, yeah (My God got it) When I'm feelin' down (Yeah, He got it), Feel it in my soul (Yeah, He got it), God flex me, yeah (Yeah, He got it), God rest me, yeah (My God got it)
