GOD'S POWER, GOD'S PEACE,
WORDS; POWER OF

Voices In My Head

What made hearing the singular, soft spoken voice so difficult?

Do you ever get frustrated with the things people say to you? Explain.

Do insults and negative opinions of you get stuck in your head? Explain.

Who do you go to for encouragement?

"Clarity is not found in the crowd. Clarity for me is found in the still small voice. The whisper rather than the scream." — Switchfoot's Jon Foreman

Lyric Chat

My words come out like an avalanche in silence, and you've got oceans trapped in your eyelids
Do you believe your generation carries more pain than the one before it?

Do the insults scream louder than the encouragement in your life?

Why's the sunlight hiding? Ain't letting any light in It's a storm that I've been fighting
What does this lyric bring to mind for you?

How do you cope when life seems dark?

Every moment crowded with choices Speak to me and drown out the voices
What areas of life does your generation need the most advice on?

Where do you turn for advice?

Psalm 46

Verses 1-3
What are some words used in these verses to describe God?

When life feels as if it is falling apart, what makes God a reliable source of strength?

How does trusting God make fear illogical?

Verses 4-6
Have you ever been beside a mighty river with huge rapids? Describe what you saw.

How is God's power like that river?

If a person truly realizes that God can stop the mightiest of earth's forces with just one of His thoughts, how might that affect who that person goes to for advice?

Verses 7-9

What do you know about God's faithfulness throughout history?

How did God play a significant role in ending the world wars you've studied in school? Explain.

Is there anything bigger than God's peace? Explain.

Verses 10-11

How difficult is it for you to be still?

What benefits come from being still and quiet for the purpose of experiencing God?

When can you pause more than once this week to connect with God? Since God has been with His people since the beginning, do you think He will ever leave you?
