Approaching the Lyrics

Approaching the throne You _____ me from death, my eyes from the _____, you gave me every _____. You took away my _____, nothing in my hands I bring, simply to the cross I cling. You paid my _____ and now I'm free. You washed my hands clean and now I'm free. He put his Son in my place, not in _____. It's the heart of grace. All of the things I don't deserve I have _____, Creator of heaven and earth, your death is what _____ me. My name is written on His hands, my name is written on His heart, He _____ all of my plans from the very start for His love will never depart. I will approach the throne in faith.

I will sing a song of praise, I will _____ Your name, You put your Son in my _____, you paid my debt, and now all I know is grace. You have given me _____, I long to hear you say you are _____. Hallelujah, Hallelujah, salvation has been won, I am a beggar adopted as a son, I long to hear Him say, you are forgiven.

Approaching the Word

Rewrite Colossians 2:13-14 in your own words.

Psalm 68:20

What are some of the struggles you need to let God deliver you from?

Wrap Up

What distractions will you begin to work on this week, to focus more clearly on Jesus?
